FIDELITY INDICTMENTS.

BILLS FOUND AGAINST THE CINCIN-NATI BANK WRECKERS.

The Grand Jury Indiet Edward L. Harper, Ammi Baldwis, Benjamin E. Hopkins, Josie Holmes and W. H. Chatfield. Mice Holmes In Jall.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 24.—The dead calm which had broaded over Fidelidy bank matters for months was broken up Friday afternoon by the report and final adjournment of the grand jury. Although the greatest secrecy was observed in guarding the names of those indicted and the charges against them as crystalized by the jury, it was

EDWARD L. HARPLE announced with perialnty that Elward L. Harper, vice president; Amini Baldwin, cashler; Ben E. Hopkins, assistant cashier; Josie Holmes, confidential clerk, and W. H. Chaifield, director, of the Fidelity bank, and others were indicted.

Upon the filing of the indictments in Judge Sage's court the executive depart-ment of the United States court, was set in violent motion to piace those 'indicted' behind bars or get them in readiness to appear before the United States court, At 9 e'clock last night Miss Josie Holmes was again arrested Hamilton county

AMMI BALDWIN. jal. The warrant given to Deputy Marshal Costello, who had previously served warrante upon her, with the understanding that the arrest be mede this morning.

Learning, however, that Miss Hoimes was in Dayton, and that delay might give the Indicted lady a chance to escape, Deputy Marshal Costello took the first train for Dayton, meetlng Miss Holmes at the Dayton depot just as she was taking a train for home. Secret Service Detective BENJAMIN HOPETNE. Eaves accompanied Mr. Costello, and Miss Holmes was piaced under arrest just as the cars were entering Cincinnati. Being unable to furnish bond, Miss Holmes was taken formerly occupied. Her quarters are better fitted up, however, as Jailer Williams had anticipated her return.

The vicinity of the government building and the corridors leading to the Federal court rooms have been orowded since early morning by citizens anxious to learn the very latest news concerning the indictments brought hy the grand jury against the guilty Fidelity bank wreckers.

Chatfield was the only Fidelity official within the railing up to 10:10 a. m. He was arraigned for making false statements to Comptroller of the Currency Trenholm, and was put under $5,000 bond. The bail was given and he was released.

Chatfield is of the well known firm of Chatfield & Woods. His sureties are Henry Pogue, Clifford B. Wright, William Woods, Alex. McDonald and Sam. Pogué.

The next man to fall into the hands of the expectant government officials was Henry Pogua, also a director in the late Fidelity bank. He peeped into Judge Sage's court to see how his friend Chatfield was coming on. Pogue was quickly recognized and as quickly brought to the bar of justice to plead to an indlotment similar to Chatfield's. Mr. Pogne, in a volce of injured innocence and outraged virtue, emphatically declared himself not guilty and was released on $5,000 bond. Mr. Pogue is of the dry goods firm of H. & S. Pogue, 'His sureties are Samuel Pogue and Joseph Trevor. Chatfield and Pogue were each indicted under three counts; first, that they, with intent to injure the association, on May 16, 1887, did aid and abet Ammi Baidwin to wrongfuily make false satrles in the statement of the Fidelity National bank.

Secondly, that Chatfield and Pogue, as directors of the Fidelity bank, did make a false entry in declaring that the association had in its possersion as resources the sum of $235,310 in certificates issued by the treasury of the United States. Third count, that Chatfield and Pogue also made a false entry in deciaring that the Eidelity bank had in te possession as resource the sum of $130. 000 in obligations of the United States designated as legal tender notes.

Josle Holmes was indicted under five counts: First, for making a false entry of $10,000 in a draft book. Second, for aiding and abetting Vice President Harper in unlawfully appropriating one million doilars of the funds of the Fidelity Bank. Third, for making a false daily statement of the bank's affairs May 14, 1887, June 15, 1887, and May 15, 1887. Ammi Baidwin, carbier and director, was indicted under three counts, the first three being the same as those under which Chatfield and Pogne were indicted. The fourth count is for mlsapplying $300,000 of the Fidelity bank. Firth, for ussuing a certain certificate of deposit of $300,000. Sixth, for paying to J. W. Hoyt, Joseph 'W. Wilshire, C. J. Kershaw & Co., Irwin, Green & Co., and o hers the sum of $1,000,000, the property of the association. Against Joseph W. Wilshire five counts were returned. All are for aiding and abetting Harper and Hopkins in the misappropriation of funds belonging to the bank in the following sum : $600,000, $17,500, $8,786 92, 455 OBO, $95,500, $200,000, $100,000,

The indictments against Harper number afty-five. The first count accuses him of misappropriating: $3,000,000 of the bank to be used in baying 20,000,000 bushids of wheat in Chicago; count second charges him with embezziling $2,000,000 of the bank; eount third charges him with misapplying $200,000. For wary 12 last, and count fourth with misapplying $200,000 on another date. Count five charges him with issuing a false certificate of deposit for $200,000 on April 23, ib87, and procuring a loan on it frauduteutiy; count six charges him with a similar transaction. And so with the fifty-five counts, each stating how some part of the 43,000,000 was obtained fraudulently to put iuto the deal in Chicago, and charging him with the crime thereof. The indictment against Benjamin Hop-king, essistant cashler of the Frielity bank. declared forty-eight counts, aggregating 13,000,000 of the bank's money fraudulently used in forty-eight "deals" in wheat, in Chicago. Judge Sage adjourned court at noon tiil Monday next, when, if Judge Johnson be present, Harper, Wilshire, Hopkins, Baldwin and Josie Hoimes will be arraigned to plead to the indictments brought against them by the grand jury. Hopkins, Harper and Holmes are in castody.

AN INDIANA LYNCHI' G. Amer Green Taken From the Jali and Hung by a Mob.

DELPHI, Ind., Oct. 24, -- About midnight a mob 200 strong assaulted the juil for the purpose of securing Amer Green, the mur-derer of Luella Mabbitt. Green had been here since Wednesday, when he was quietly brought from the Michigan City prison. Little precaution was taken, as those who would most likely favor iynching lived in the extreme part of this and in Cass county.

The mob formed in the street and posted a guard to prevent outside interference, Then they knocked in the door to the residence part of the jail and demanded the keys. They were refused, and a man with a sledge hammer and cold-ohisel broke four locks. The iast door, by an automatic arrangement, unlocked the cell in which Green was confined. The murderer had been cool, but when his door opened he cried piteously for mercy and showed fight, but was overpowered, bound and placed in a covered wagon waiting for him. The wagon was driven fast and when over Deer creek about seventy-five wagons feli ln the procession, which moved to Walnut Grove, seven miles east, near where the murdered girl lived.

There the crowd halted, and Green was disposed of according to the most approved methods of Juige Lynch.

When Green was taken from jall the sheriff was powerless, but took William Walker, an alleged accomplice of Grean, to the cupola. The mob, however, did not demand blin.

Before he was strung up Green protested his innocence and begged for meroy, which was administered to him as he was suspected to have dealt by his vlotim. His last utterance was to the effect that Luella Mabbilt was yet alive, and he was innocent, but the moh had gone too far to believe his state-

The Development of Dakote-

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24-L. K. Church, governor of Dakota, in his annual report, says the territory has had another year of wonderful growth in population and wealth, due to the extension of railroad lines into the rich agricultural and mineral regions, but 23,811,445 acres of public land remain unoccupied. During the past six years over 33,000,000 acres of Dikota lands have been entered. The population of the territory is estimated at 588,477, an increase of 66,000 during the year. The assessment of the property of the territory is $157,084,365, an increase of nearly $35,000,000 during the year. The bonded indebtedness of the territory is $1,098,800. The area of sown wheat this season is estimated at 3,899,389 acres, a yield of 611,000,000 bushels, nearly double the product last year. The value of live stock 'In the territory in $42,828,338, an increase of $5,000,000 per year for seven years." The growth of edu cational facilities has more than kept pace with the growth of population.

On the question of the admission Dakota as a state, the governor says there is deep interest taken in the question of division and admission, and whether admitted as one or two states there are many reasons why the people should not be longer deprived of the right to manage their own affairs. He does not express himself as hav-ing a preference in the matter. He indorses the Dawes Sioux recorration bill, and asks for the appointment of two additional judges.

THE PRESIDENT AT HOME.

CLEVELAND'S EXTENDED TRIP FL NALLY FINISHED.

The Presidential Party Safely Arrive Back in Washington-They Express Themselves Weil Pleased With Their Trip Through Eighteen States.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The presidential train drew into the Baltimore & Potomac depot this morning at twenty minutes before 7 o'clock, schedule time, 'The president and Mrs. Cleveland, Col. Lamont, Mr. W. 8. Bissell and Dr. Bryant were driven to the executive mansion; and Postmaster general and Mrs. Vilas directly to their homa, Messra, Bissell and Bryant left Washington for Buffalo and New York respectively, on later trains.

Curiosity to see the cars in which the presidential party has been traveling for the past three weeks brought quite a number of people to the depot. Sluce leaving Washington, at nearly every stop, the cars composing the 'special" have been thoroughly cleaned, and in several instances paint and varnish have been applied. In tills way they have been kept bright and fresh, and, barring a few scratches on the sides, caused by people climbing up to look through the window, etc., they return as good and as handsome as they departed.

There has not been a day since the train left the capital on September 80, that the drawing room of the president's car has not been decorated throughout with fresh flowers received from friends along the ilne of travel, and, indeed, during the greater part of the time It has been impossible to carry the floral offerings on the train. In many cities flowers presented to the president and his wife have been distributed among the orphan asylums, soldiers' hospitals and other charitable institutions. Probably one of the most thoughtfui incidents of this character was in Kansas City, where choice, fresh flowers were sent to the persons injured by the accident ou the cable railway. From first to last the trip has been a thorough success,

The president and Mrs. Cleveland are pleased with what they have seen, and the many congental acquaintances they have made. Without a single exception the citizens of every city visited, irrespective of every endeavor to make their stay pleasant, and manifested deep regret when the time arrived to say "good-hye." The president has more than once expressed regret that his official duties would not permit ionger absence, in order that he might have complied with at least some of the many urgent requests for "a few minutes' stop" waich have been received by him since he left Washington.

There have been many nmusing incidents along the route of travel, nearly all of which have been recorded from time to time, and also very many impressive scenes. Doubtless none of the latter were more ap-Bill Green, brother of Amer, who is in and than the heartfelt congratulations jall in this city awaiting his trial, fies in his showered upon them at different, points by cell in abject terror, fearing the fate old friends, who apparently had made their befallen his brother. He reiterates the way to the stations for the first time in statement that Miss Mahbitt is allve in years, with a view of paying tribute to their nation's executive.

The president, during the trlp, often spoke of the many elaborate decorations and illustrations of farm houses, and appeared to be especially pleased with the honor bestowed upon him by that class of people. It is no exaggeration to say that the "swing" through the eighteen states and covering upwards of 4,500 miles has been one of the most complete ever made in this or any other country. The greatest possible precautions have been taken to insure absolute safety. Pilot trains have been run by every road over which the special train passed, and patroimen have been stationed at nearly every mile-post.

Mrs. Cleveland has stood the hard journey as well. as any member of the party, and her appearance when she alighted from the Puliman palace car this morning gave no room for a suggestion of fatigue.

Mrs. Vilas, who has been somewhat indisposed for a day or so past, was also feeling quite well again this morning. Before leaving the train the president and

Mrs. Cleveland bade their traveling companlons good bye and wished God's speed to those whose journeys were not ended upou arrival in Washington.

CHAMPION BALL PLAYERS.

The Detroit Clab Win the World's Championship Beries.

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 24.—The deciding game between the St. Louis base ball sinh, the champions of the Association, and Detroit base ball ciub, the champlone of the League, for the championship of the world, was played in this city Fridey afternoon, and resulted in a victory by a score of 18:50 3 for the team from the energetic and beau-tiful little City of the Straits. The result of the series has been conclusive, and proves that while the St. Louis Browns are a great team they are not the 'only or the greatest base ball club in the world. The series also goes to a certain extent to bolster up the old idea that the League clubs are superlor, in playing strength to those of its young rival, the American Association.

St. Louis won the championship of the Association, hands down, having about fifteen games more to their credit than the nearest competitor, the Cinchnatl Red Stocklags. They have clearly outclassed the company in which they are traveling, and, with the exception of the Cincinnati club and one or two others in the Association, have no trouble in whining when and how they like. On the other hand Detroit has had a hard fight to bear off the pennant in the League. Philadelphia's ciub, which holds second place, is only four games behind the world beaters, and the Chicago and New York clubs are close on the beels of the Quaker club. From this it may be argued that as Detroit has beaten the team which outclasses all its competitors in the ssociation, the League is much ronger than the Association. St. Louis, nowever, was not in the very best condition possible. The od reliable pitcher, Dave Foutz, was not in good form, and was his hard every time he faced the Detroit slug-

One reason for the success of the Detroit club is that it was not a mere money getting machine, but is supported by patriotic citizens, who have sufficient public spirit to give their city a National reputation through their representatives on the diamond

After three exhibition games at St. Louis, Chleago and Detroit the St. Louis and Detroit teams will disband for the season. Many members of each club will joln combinations to play on the Pacific slope during the winter. Locally the base bail season has been one of the most successful in the history of the National game. MORE LASTING THAN BRONZE.

Is the Memory of the Man Whose Statue is Unveiled in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—The ceremony of the unveiling of the statue of Abraham Lin-coln, which took place here to-day, drew an immense concourse of people to Lincoln park early in the morning to awalt the interesting proceedings by which the event will be characterized. The statue arrived several days ago and was placed on the pedestal, which has long been completed for its reception. This notable work is the gift of the late Eli Bates, of this city, who in his will bequeathed $40,000 for its erection. It is spoken of by those who have already seen it as a most admirable presentment of the form and features of the martyred president. It is of herolo size, measures from foot to crown nearly twetve feet. Mr. St. Gaudens, the sculptor by whom is was designed, has devoted three years to its completion. The figure stands detached before a chair of state, as though the president had just arose to receive a petition or a delegation. The left leg is advanced, the body resting mainly on the right. The left hand grasps the lapel of a long frock coat, which is unbuttoned, and the right hand is held with the arm at length behind the body. The head is inclined slightly forward. The statue was unveiled and formally presented to the people at 3 o'clock to-day by Thomas F. Withrow on behalf of the trustees of the Bates bequest.

Young Abraham Lincoln, a grandson of the president and son of Robert Lincoin. withdrew the veil from the figure. Hon. W. C. Goudy, representing the board of park commissioners, accepted the gift and Leonard Swett delivered an oration on Abraham Liucoln. The exercises were allke interesting and impressive. Seats were erected in the park for a thousand specially invited guests, who witnessed and took part in the proceedings, including many of the more prominent residents of the city and state as well as visitors from auroad. The figure is in bronze and said to be the finest and most artistic achievement of the sculptor's art yet attained by an Americau artist.

A' WILD TRAIN.

An Engineer, Unable to Stop His Train, Dashes Into a Depot and is Killed.

Hoborin, N. J., Oot. 24 .- The Boonton express on the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, due in this city at 8:14 te-day, came rushing into the depot this morning, the englueer being totally unable to diminish the engine's speed, because of some accident to the machinery. The engine crashed into two Pullman palace care which were in the depot directly in front of it, and these were driven into the office of the Puliman Palace Car company, beyond them. B. L. Westervelt, the agent of the Pullman company, was in the office with his clerk at the time. Fortunately Mr. Wetervelt happened to look out, and seeing "that an accident was inevitable, shouted to his clerk, and both barely had time to escape The office was wrecked 'as were also both

Pullman cars. The passengers on the train were all shaken up, but none injured. The engineer. James Dunn, was thrown from the engine to the platform, where he was picked up and taken to the hospital in an unconscious condition. E. Tanse, a negre porter on one of the Pullman care, had his shoulder dislocated. The engineer died shortly after reaching the hospital. These were the only casualties. The wrecked cars took fire from the stoves in them, but the conflagration was soon ex-inguished by the

A man may find it comfortably easy to give up the majority of his failings when he goes into the church, but liquor he hugs to the last, so hard is it to shake himself of this evil.

If the people who favor temperance worked as hard and presented as solld a front as do lts enemies, it would be only a short time until we shook onreelves clear of whisky and the rnm traffic.

Some say that if a man can't control himself he onght not to touch liquor. Now this is no news, nor is it very smart, for a child would know as much, bnt, show as one man that controls himself in drinking whisky and we will show handreds that whisky controls. Let's try the plan of getting liquor from under the noses of those who say they would like to quit drinking and see how this works; for there is not a man living who can leave off the drinking habit, with whisky constantly under his nose.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

A BRIEF SUMMARY OF IMPORTANT CABLE DISPATOHES.

Ireland's Chief Secretary Makes a Statement About the Reld Upon Farmer Sexton's House-Coordon in Ireland. Public Opinion on the Subject.

LONDON, Oct. 24. - The baste with which Mr. Arthur J. Balfour, chief secretary for breiand, comes forward to deny the statehouse, resulting in the killing of Constable Wheihan, was organized by the informer Callinan at the instigation of the police in spite of the fact that Califnan himself has so testified, denotes that the chief secretary is you. not nearly so defiant of public opinion concorning the present administration in Ireland as he would have it believed.

While Callinan's testimony may or may its entirety or wholly disregarded. There in December. is no part of his deposition that does not ever disgraced mankind by his existence, yet the attendant circumstane s of the raid in question and the corroborative testimony of other witness a prove that he told the tious in their domains. trnth when he confessed his alliance with the police in munifacturing evidence of Irish crime. The case involving Whelban's death and Cultuan's infamy has been disposed of, for the present, at least, and in raking it up for the purpose of denying statements airea ly proved, Mr. Balfour incurs the suspicion of attempting to raise a cloud of dust with the object of blinding the people to other outrages in which the government officials much higher in rank than mere constables are immediately con-

Nobody doubts Mr. Baifour's willingness or even auxiety to enforce coercion iu the nost rigorous manuer, to cause the people of Ireland to writhe and groan under the crushing weight of the statutes literally applied and to forever deprive them of the rights granted to the people and had sacred by the governments of every other civilized nation on the globe than Ireland, but everybody acquits him of cowardice, or i desire to employ under-hand methods in accomplishing his purpose.

The question, therefore, naturally arises: Does the Irish secretary realize that he has braved public opinion too far, or does he really believe that he is able to hoodwink the British public and the people of Ireland as well by the specious plea of a general denia? It would be well for himself, for the government and for the people if an affirmative answer to the first question is the correct one. He has established himself in Dublin with the avower purpose of enforcing a single law to the fullest extent, subordinating every other statute thereto. Other laws may be violated unheaded, but the crimes act must be obeyed in its minutest particular. In short, Mr. Balfour proposes to govern Ireland under one law, while the people insist upon the enforcement of ali the laws. The experiment is not new; it has been tried in other countries and by other men than Mr. Baifour, with the uniform result of total failure, and Mr. Balfour will fall, too.

Public opinion as weil as public policy is against this method of government and this fact aione is a guarantee that the present system cannot prevail. Mr. Balfour, while practically the autocrat of Ireland, is virtually a prisoner. He is attended by detectives and constables wherever he goes and his private and official apartments are surrounded by military guards. He is not free to go about unattended as other men do. nor is he in the enjoyment at any moment of that immunity from personal harm which a high official of the queen of Great Britain and Ireland should feel at all times within the borders of his own country. Let him enforce all the laws with entire impartiality and his personal safety will be as fully assured as that of any man in the kingdom, but if he continues in his present course, not all the power the government is possessed of can avert the danger to his personal safety which he will bring upon himself.

Labor Trouble in London.

LONDON, Oct. 24,—A dense fog prevailed here, and it is feared that the unemployed workmen who have been creating disturbances for the past few days, will take advantage of this fact to make further trouble. At 'present everything is quiet, and the crowds in the parks are smail.

ARRESTED FOR ARSON.

A Fire tu a St. Louis Hotel Under Suspicions Circumstances

St. Louis, Oct. 31. - The Golden Gate hotel on Market street was on fire at an early hour yesterday morning, and A. M. Daly, the proprietor, is in jail charged with arson. There were over two hundred persons sleeping in the building, and a narrow escape from a holocaust occurred, although the actual damage to the building is slight. A printer on a morning paper, named Patrick Lirkin, is in jail in connection with the affair. Larkin says he went to bed in an "L" part of the hotel about 2 a. m. Boon after he smeiled coal oil burning, and getting up he discovered fire raging in the halls. He went to the main part of the building and told Daly his house was on fire. Daly, he mays, answered, "Good God man," do you want to ruin me! Shut up your

Larkin asked: "What are you going to do about all these people in your house," and started to turn in an alarm. Daly prevented him, and soon some one else turned in the slarin, and Daly ran up stairs and put the fire out before the department arrived. Daly was arrested, and on his making counter-charges against Larkin the
